

Presbytery of Central Nebraska
Peacemaking Fund
Peacemaking Grant Funding Guidelines

Rationale

In support of peacemaking within the Presbytery of Central Nebraska, we believe:

That by the grace of God, the presbytery of Central Nebraska, a governing body of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), is a community of salvation through faith in Jesus Christ, and is committed to ministry and mission within and beyond our geographic and denominational bounds. Empowered by the Holy Spirit, the Presbytery seeks to lead congregations with energy, intelligence, imagination and love.

Overview

A limited number of grants are designated to be used within the Presbytery toward peacemaking ministries. Requests will be reviewed and approved by Business & Budget for final authorization within budgeted guidelines.

Peacemaking Grant Funding Guidelines

1. The funding available for peacemaking grants is not unlimited. Applications are considered at the fall meeting of the Business & Budget Committee for funding in the following calendar year. Applications should be submitted by August 1st. Late submissions will be considered if all the available funds for any calendar year have not been committed. Submission of an application does not guarantee funding.
2. Grant awards will be made on a case-by-case basis; grants will not exceed 50% of event cost or $1,000, whichever is less. Submission of an application does not guarantee funding.
3. If for any reason the applicant does not use the grant dollars or if the total amount requested is not used all unused dollars must be returned.
4. Grants are available for Presbytery of Central Nebraska (PCN) minister members, PCN inquirers, PCN candidates, employees of PCN, and personnel that are employed by a church of Presbytery of Central Nebraska.
